02 / VISUAL DIRECTION

Architectural

Space for the everyday.

A warmer, editorial direction. A panoramic kitchen image leads the experience, with the configuration choices arranged horizontally below.

01 Panoramic photography

02 Warm, material-led palette

03 Horizontal configuration panel

COLOUR DIRECTION

Warm stone

Olive grey

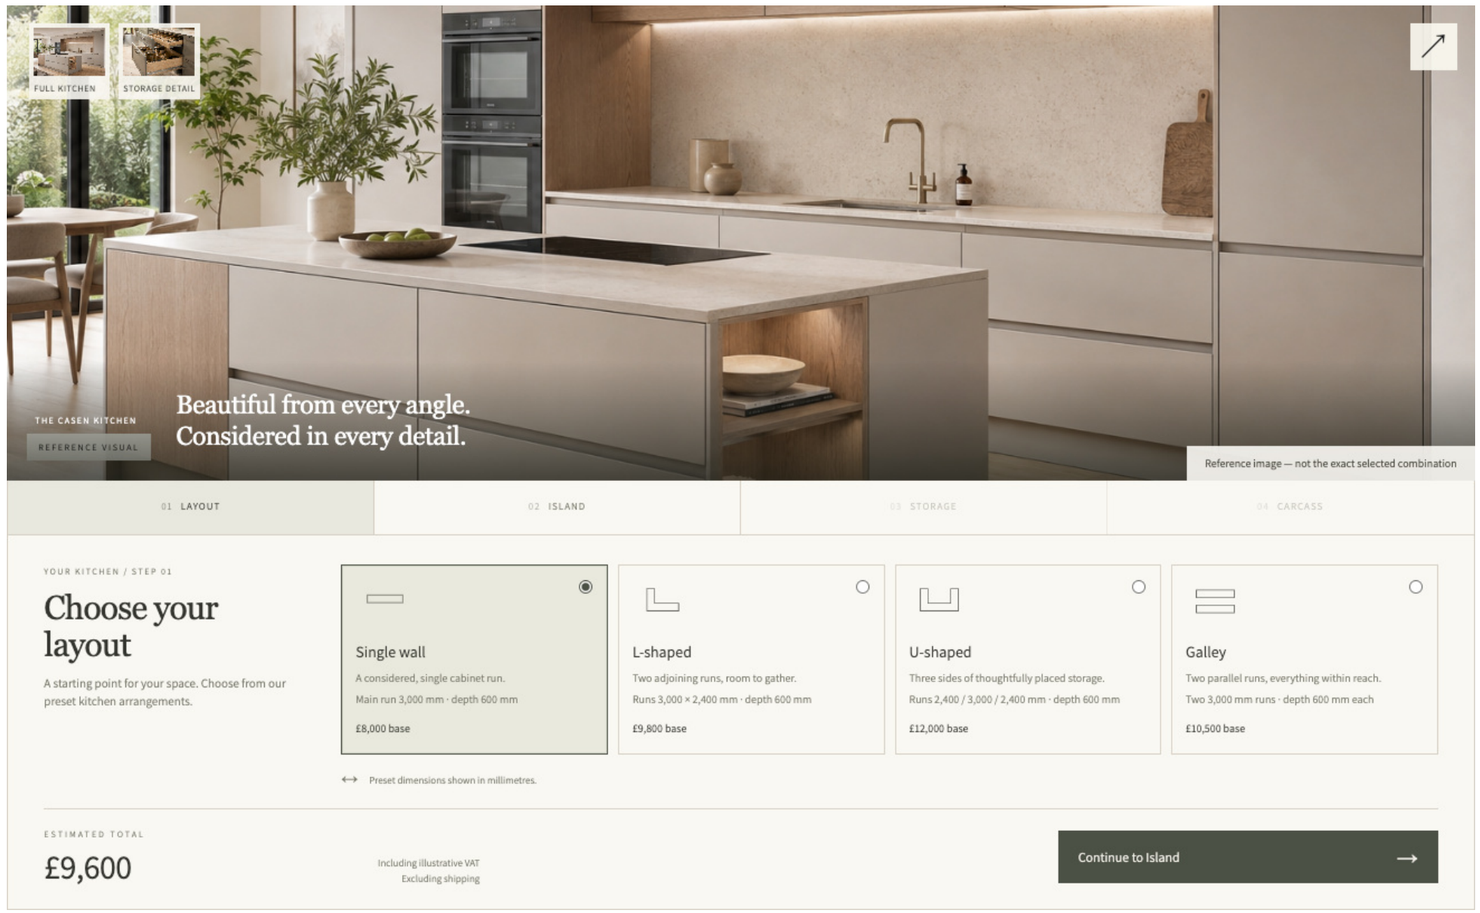

Charcoal

Reference kitchen photography. Shown for visual direction, not as an exact selected configuration.

Let the space lead.

A wide kitchen photograph creates context first. A horizontal configuration panel then brings the choices into focus.

Desktop concept. Prices, dimensions and VAT shown in the interface are illustrative.

COMPOSITION

A panoramic image above a full-width selector. Layout cards sit in one row on desktop, with the estimated total below.

TYPOGRAPHY

Serif headlines add an editorial quality, balanced by clean sans-serif controls and compact labels.

VISUAL CHARACTER

Stone, olive grey and charcoal connect the interface to the natural finishes shown in the photography.

An editorial layout, adapted.

The image remains the introduction. The horizontal desktop choices become a two-column mobile grid.

REFERENCE DETAIL PHOTOGRAPHY

A CONSISTENT JOURNEY

01 Choose a layout

A clear starting point with preset dimensions.

02 Consider an island

Add an island or keep the centre open.

03 Select your storage

Choose useful additions for everyday routines.

04 Finish and review

Choose the carcass finish and view a quotation.

MOBILE CONFIGURATION

Why choose this direction?

Choose Architectural if the kitchen imagery should lead the story, with a warmer, more editorial presentation of the Casen Doors collection.

CLIENT REVIEW FOCUS

Confirm the panoramic image treatment, serif headlines and warmer colour direction.